1. What contributions did you make in this period and what was the resulting business impact? (TIP: remember to explore themes of Teams & Collaboration; Customer Experience; Learning and Growth throughout the conversation).

Manager Comments

Being proactive in learning new skills by attending trainings (Mandatory/Self-Initiative) is a great contribution as you help your self improve and be prepared for your future projects. Keep it up!

Employee Comments

Currently I am with the Transportation Division Shared Project but still on Salesforce training. So far, I don't have project since April and May. I was watching tutorials in LinkedIn Learning for JAVA, Spring, ASP.net, management, interpersonal skills and other tutorials that will improve my performance in my career. I had also help with some of the designing for an internal project "Training Monitoring of Bench Members". But before the coding started, I was transferred to this current project.

2. What could you have done differently for greater impact ?

Manager Comments

Continue self-improvement to expand your knowledge and gain new skills.

Employee Comments

I could have continue with te internal project while I an on training here on my current project.

3. What are your key deliverables and the expected business impact for the coming period ?

Manager Comments

Continue self-improvement to expand your knowledge and gain new skills. Attend trainings, gain certificates and do standardization training refresher in preparation for your future projects.

Employee Comments

My aim for the coming period is to pass the certification of Salesforce administrator so that I can contribute more in my upcoming project.

4. What will you do in the upcoming period to learn and grow ?

Manager Comments

Continue self-improvement to expand your knowledge and gain new skills. Utilized resources like Linked-IN learning, SABA, Percipio etc.
